Mr. Milfred Beane

Will Get High School Certificate

One of the most highly motivated and hard studying persons that ever enrolled in the Basic Education for Adults Program is a resident of the Concord area, Mr. Milfred "Mick" Beane. Mr. Beane enrolled in the program October 1971, letting it be known he wanted to get his high school certificate. April 1973, may well be the month he sees his goal come true.

The future looked bleak for Mr. Beane that October of 1971. It appeared his job would be abolished within the year when his company was considering going out of business. He felt his possibilities for new employment would not be good since he had not finished grade school, although he repeated the seventh grade at his own request. This company did not go out of business and he did not lose his job, but the scare was too great for him to say quits to his education. He resolved to work harder to get his high school certificate. Every spare moment was used to work on his arithmetic and language, since his reading and comprehension was good. He finished his first book in arithmetic very quickly and worked in the second book even during the summer months of 1972.

He had progressed so well by the fall of 1972 that he was entered into the High School Equivalency Program (GED) at the Intermediate School and is scheduled to take the GED examination this month at E.C. Glass in Lynchburg

Mr. Beane has had moments of discouragement but has worked hard to overcome being out of school for many years. His teachers and wife have encouraged him and helped, but this success is really his alone because of his determination and studying hard. He has missed very few classes during these two years and this was only because of revival at his church.

We all wish Mr. Beane the reward of the High School Certificate which he so richly deserves this month.
